

Local CPA, Joe Hinske, Presents at National Hospitality Conference

For Immediate Release
Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina
Oct. 16, 2015

Legare + Bailey + Hinske LLC partner Joseph A. Hinske, CPA, MS, recently presented at The Select Registry Member 2015 Conference in Key West, Florida. Hinske presented "Rest Easy by Putting Your Taxes to Bed" to over 150 hotel, inn, and bed and breakfast owners from across the country. The presentation focused on tax planning, accounting strategies and tax savings for the hospitality industry as well as for individual hospitality professionals.

"Year after year Select Registry brings together owners and operators who truly offer a unique, high-quality accommodations experience. The passion they demonstrate toward all aspects of their business, including the tax, audit and accounting side, really allowed us to dive into the challenges being faced today by business owners," shared Joe Hinske. "It was truly an honor to be a part of this conference."

Founded in 1972 as the Independent Innkeepers' Association, Select Registry has evolved into a portfolio of more than 300 quality-assured premier inns, bed and breakfasts, and small boutique hotels throughout North America. Each member property has passed an unannounced, rigorous, 200-point quality assurance inspection to earn and maintain its Select Registry membership. Annually, member property owners come together to exchange ideas and collaborate with leaders from a variety of professions who offer expertise which impacts the hospitality industry.

Hinske has over 20 years of experience in public accounting and consulting. His practice focuses in the areas of taxation, business planning, forensic accounting, complex litigation and estate planning. He is President of the Estate Planning Council of Charleston and serves on the board of directors as Treasurer for the Mt. Pleasant Business Association and Friends of Keep
